A Joint Marine Biotechnology Initiative for the Atlantic

ALL-ATLANTIC OCEAN RESEARCH ALLIANCE

Creating an Atlantic Ocean Community by Implementing the Galway
and Belém Statements

Meeting venue : Online
Date, time: 27 June 2021, 10:00 – 13:00 BRT
28 June 2021, 10:00 – 13:00 BRT

Description: Within the scope of the AANChOR project and the All Atlantic Ocean Research Alliance, and following the previous capacity building & network events held by the Joint Pilot Action All-Atlantic Marine Biotechnology Initiative (AA-BIOTECMAR), on the 27th and 28th of June (from 10:00 to 13:00 BRT) the All-Atlantic Aquaculture & Marine Biotechnology Startup Accelerator Workshop will be hosted by AA-BIOTECMAR.

The event, which will take place online, aims to foster collaboration and exchange of knowledge aimed at the development of startups and innovative companies in the aquaculture and marine biotechnology sectors. On the 27th, the focus will be a scientific/academic overview of Aquaculture and Marine Biotechnology themes, especially with an emphasis on environmental mitigation activities and low footprint. During the 28th, the focus will be the promotion of marine startups. Speakers will address topics such as the acceleration and expansion of enterprises, entrepreneurship and innovation for both sectors. To this end, academics and experts from countries in America, Europe and Africa will present their perspectives, research and contributions in dynamic sessions during the two days of the workshop.
